Day 76: Question 4: solo instrument and piano

G7 Scores · about 40 minutes: warm-up 5 · teach 10 · together 10 · on his own 12 · game 3

1 · WARM-UP (5 MIN)

Today's practice in Philip's corner, or the first two 'together' questions below.

2 · TEACH (10 MIN)

Say: “Read the whole score once before answering anything.”

- Question 4 shows a solo instrument with piano. Questions ask about chords, keys, intervals (often compound), cadences, ornaments, terms and the solo instrument.
- If the solo transposes, work out its sounding notes first. Then read the harmony from the piano and the solo together.

Worked example

A B♭ clarinet plays written E. What sounds?

1. B♭ instruments sound a major 2nd lower.
2. A tone below E is D.
3. So the sounding note is D.

Watch out for

- Naming chords from the solo's written notes without transposing.

In the exam: 25 marks: usually about 8 short questions.

Show him these cards

Question 4: a solo instrument with piano.

Transposing solo? Work out the SOUNDING notes first.

Read the harmony from the piano and solo together, then answer chords, intervals, cadences, terms.

3 · DO TOGETHER (10 MIN)

- Answer the lesson pack's question 4 together, out loud.

Four questions to work through together

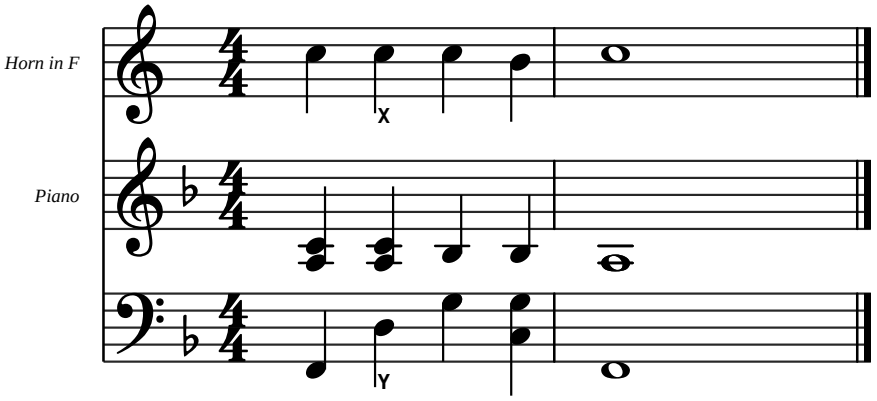

1. The music sounds in E minor. Name the chord at X (solo and piano together; remember the solo transposes).

A. VII7d B. Ic C. II7b D. IV

Answer: Ic. Sounding notes: B, B, E, G: E–G–B with B in the bass, so Ic.

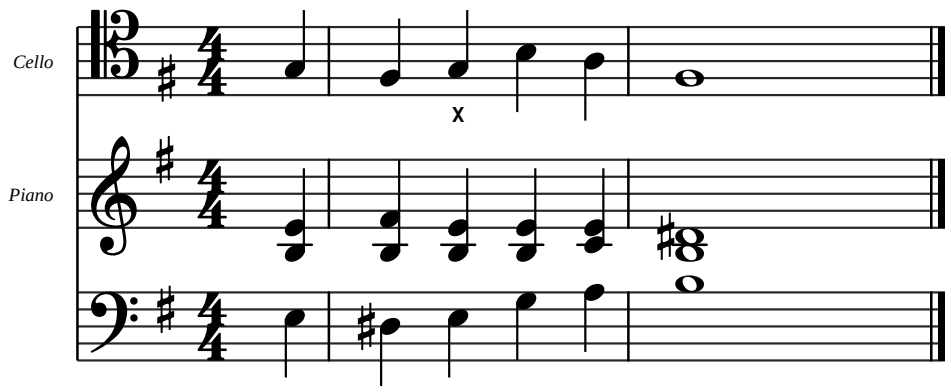

2. Name the interval between the SOUNDING note of the horn in F at X and the lowest piano note at Y.

A. minor 10th B. perfect 10th C. major 10th D. minor 3rd

Answer: minor 10th. The solo sounds F (written C); the piano bass is D. That's a minor 10th, a compound interval.

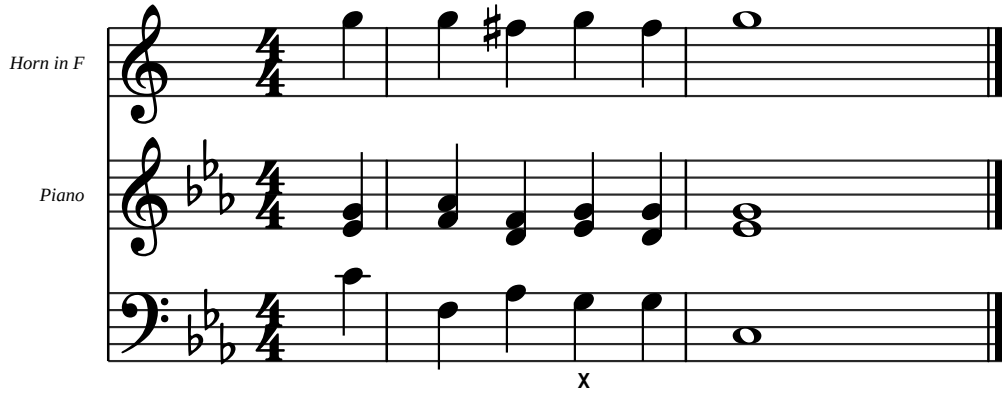

3. Name the cello's note marked X (tenor clef). Give the octave too: middle C is C4.

A. B3 B. G3 C. G2 D. F♯3

Answer: G3. In the tenor clef, middle C is on the 4th line up. The note at X is G3.

4. The music sounds in C minor. Name the chord at X (solo and piano together; remember the solo transposes).

A. Ic B. I7b C. IV7d D. VII7b

Answer: Ic. Sounding notes: G, E♭, G, C: C–E♭–G with G in the bass, so Ic.

4 · ON HIS OWN (12 MIN)

Name _____ Date _____ Score ____ / 8

1. The piano part is in G minor. Why does the horn in F have a different key signature?

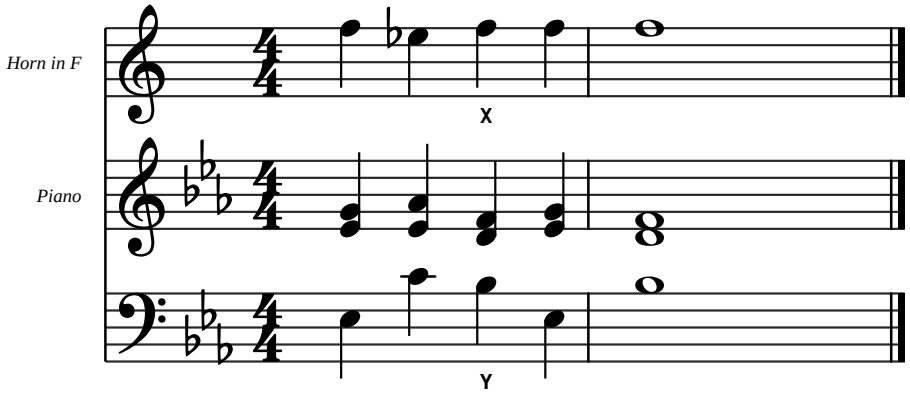

A. it is in a different key from the piano

B. the composer made a mistake

C. solo parts never use the piano's key signature

D. it sounds a perfect 5th lower than written, so it is written a perfect 5th higher

2. Name the interval between the SOUNDING note of the horn in F at X and the lowest piano note at Y.

A. perfect 15th

B. perfect octave

C. minor octave

D. major octave

3. The piano part is in E major. Why does the clarinet in B♭ have a different key signature?

A. it sounds a major 2nd lower than written, so it is written a major 2nd higher

B. the composer made a mistake

C. solo parts never use the piano's key signature

D. it is in a different key from the piano

4. The piano part is in D minor. Why does the clarinet in A have a different key signature?

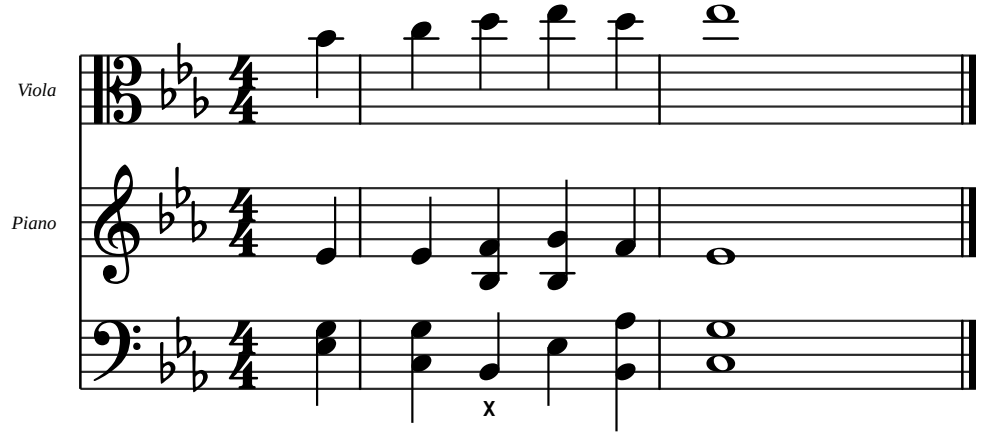

A. it sounds a minor 3rd lower than written, so it is written a minor 3rd higher

B. the composer made a mistake

C. solo parts never use the piano's key signature

D. it is in a different key from the piano

5. The music sounds in E♭ major. Name the chord at X (solo and piano together; remember the solo transposes).

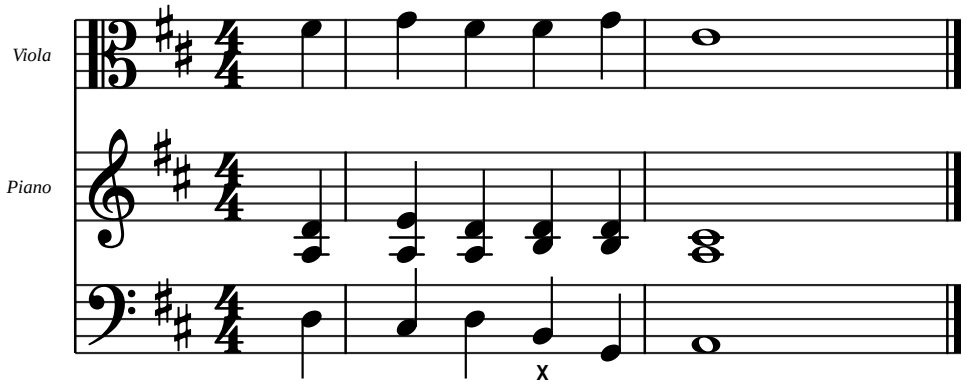

A. V

B. V7d

C. N6

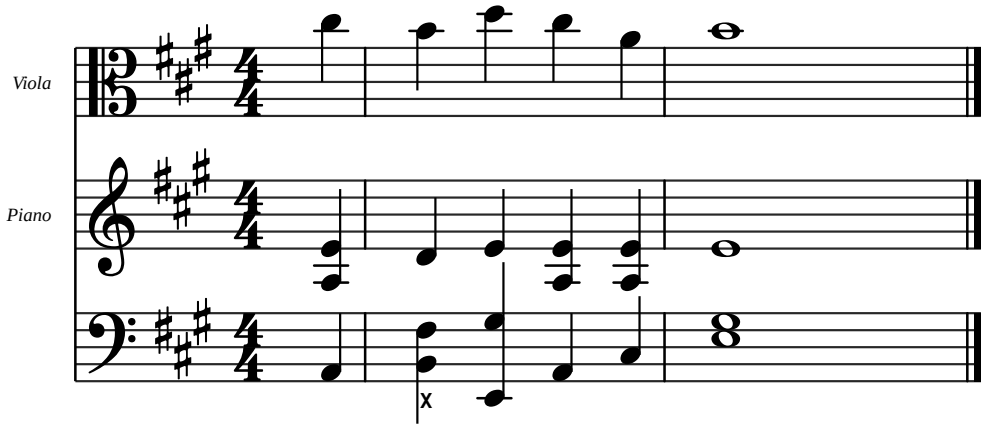

D. II7b

6. The music sounds in D major. Name the chord at X (solo and piano together; remember the solo transposes).

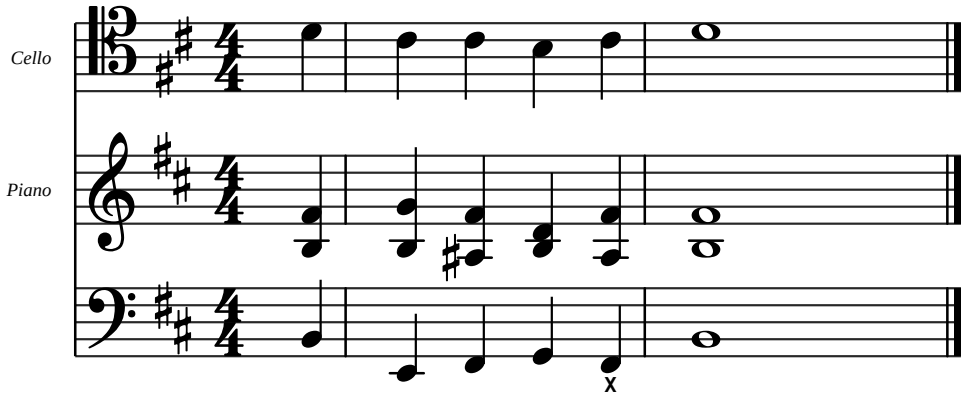

A. IVb B. II7d C. II7b D. VI

7. The music sounds in A major. Name the chord at X (solo and piano together; remember the solo transposes).

A. V7c B. II C. VII7d D. VII7

8. The music sounds in B minor. Name the chord at X (solo and piano together; remember the solo transposes).

A. V B. VII7b C. Vc D. V7d

ANSWERS (FOR MUM)

1. D: it sounds a perfect 5th lower than written, so it is written a perfect 5th higher. Horn in F sounds a perfect 5th lower than written, so its part is written higher by the same interval, and horn parts are often written with no key signature at all.
2. B: perfect octave. The solo sounds B♭ (written F); the piano bass is B♭. That's a perfect octave.
3. A: it sounds a major 2nd lower than written, so it is written a major 2nd higher. Clarinet in B♭ sounds a major 2nd lower than written, so its part is written higher by the same interval: E major's key signature becomes F♯ major's.
4. A: it sounds a minor 3rd lower than written, so it is written a minor 3rd higher. Clarinet in A sounds a minor 3rd lower than written, so its part is written higher by the same interval: F major's key signature becomes A♭ major's.
5. A: V. Sounding notes: B♭, B♭, F, D: B♭–D–F with B♭ in the bass, so V.
6. D: VI. Sounding notes: B, B, D, F♯: B–D–F♯ with B in the bass, so VI.
7. B: II. Sounding notes: B, F♯, D, B: B–D–F♯ with B in the bass, so II.
8. A: V. Sounding notes: F♯, A♯, F♯, C♯: F♯–A♯–C♯ with F♯ in the bass, so V.

Day 77: Transposing solos: B♭ and A clarinets, horn in F

G7 Scores · about 40 minutes: warm-up 5 · teach 10 · together 10 · on his own 12 · game 3

1 · WARM-UP (5 MIN)

Today's practice in Philip's corner, or the first two 'together' questions below.

2 · TEACH (10 MIN)

Say: "Transposing instruments read different notes from what sounds, so the music lines up with their fingerings."

- Clarinet in B♭ (and trumpet in B♭): sounds a major 2nd lower than written. Clarinet in A: a minor 3rd lower. Horn in F: a perfect 5th lower (horn parts often have no key signature).
- The written key signature changes too: B♭ instruments two sharps more (or two flats fewer); A instruments three flats more (or three sharps fewer).

Worked example

Concert key D major: what key does the A clarinet read?

1. Written a minor 3rd higher: D → F.
2. F major: one flat.
3. (D major has 2 sharps; 3 flats more gives 1 flat.)

Watch out for

- Going the wrong way: written is HIGHER than sounding for these instruments.

In the exam: At least one transposition question in questions 4 and 5.

Show him these cards

Clarinet and trumpet in B♭: sound a major 2nd lower. Clarinet in A: a minor 3rd lower. Horn in F: a perfect 5th lower.

Written key signatures: B♭ instruments two sharps more (two flats fewer); A instruments three flats more (three sharps fewer). Horns often have none.

3 · DO TOGETHER (10 MIN)

- Transpose four bars of a clarinet part to concert pitch, then back again.

Four questions to work through together

1. The horn in F plays the note marked X. Which note actually sounds? (The music sounds in D major.)

A. E B. C♯ C. B D. A

Answer: A. The horn in F sounds a perfect 5th lower than written: written E sounds as A. You can check it against the piano, which has the same harmony.

2. The piano part is in C♯ minor. Why does the horn in F have a different key signature?

A. solo parts never use the piano's key signature

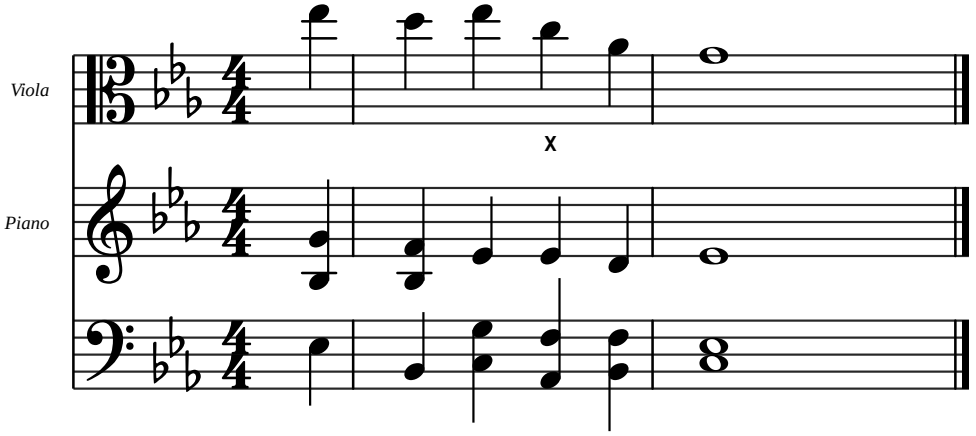

B. it is in a different key from the piano

C. the composer made a mistake

D. it sounds a perfect 5th lower than written, so it is written a perfect 5th higher

Answer: it sounds a perfect 5th lower than written, so it is written a perfect 5th higher. Horn in F sounds a perfect 5th lower than written, so its part is written higher by the same interval, and horn parts are often written with no key signature at all.

3. Name the viola's note marked X (alto clef). Give the octave too: middle C is C4.

A. E♭5 B. B♭4 C. C5 D. D5

Answer: C5. In the alto clef, middle C is on the middle line. The note at X is C5.

4. The clarinet in B♭ plays the note marked X. Which note actually sounds? (The music sounds in E♭ major.)

A. D B. B♭ C. A♭ D. C

Answer: B♭. The clarinet in B♭ sounds a major 2nd lower than written: written C sounds as B♭. You can check it against the piano, which has the same harmony.

7. Name the interval between the SOUNDING note of the clarinet in A at X and the lowest piano note at Y.

A. perfect 13th B. major 6th C. minor 13th D. major 13th

8. The clarinet in B♭ plays the note marked X. Which note actually sounds? (The music sounds in E♭ major.)

A. F B. C C. A♭ D. G

ANSWERS (FOR MUM)

1. B: V. Sounding notes: D, A, D, F♯: D–F♯–A with D in the bass, so V.
2. D: II. Sounding notes: F, A♭, C, F: F–A♭–C with F in the bass, so II.
3. A: F♯. The clarinet in B♭ sounds a major 2nd lower than written: written G♯ sounds as F♯. You can check it against the piano, which has the same harmony.
4. C: it sounds a minor 3rd lower than written, so it is written a minor 3rd higher. Clarinet in A sounds a minor 3rd lower than written, so its part is written higher by the same interval: B♭ major's key signature becomes D♭ major's.
5. C: B4. In the alto clef, middle C is on the middle line. The note at X is B4.
6. C: minor 17th. The solo sounds E♭ (written G♭); the piano bass is C. That's a minor 17th, a compound interval.
7. D: major 13th. The solo sounds B (written D); the piano bass is D. That's a major 13th, a compound interval.
8. C: A♭. The clarinet in B♭ sounds a major 2nd lower than written: written B♭ sounds as A♭. You can check it against the piano, which has the same harmony.

Day 78: C clefs in scores: viola and cello

G7 Scores · about 40 minutes: warm-up 5 · teach 10 · together 10 · on his own 12 · game 3

1 · WARM-UP (5 MIN)

Today's practice in Philip's corner, or the first two 'together' questions below.

2 · TEACH (10 MIN)

Say: “Find middle C first, then count.”

- Alto clef (viola): middle C on the middle line. Tenor clef (cello, bassoon, trombone high notes): middle C on the 4th line.
- Questions may ask you to name a note in a C clef, or to rewrite a passage in another clef at the same pitch.

Worked example

Rewrite tenor-clef C4–D4–E4 in bass clef.

1. Same pitches: C4 is the first ledger line above the bass stave.
2. D4 sits just above it; E4 on the second ledger line.

Watch out for

- Mixing up alto and tenor clef (the C line moves).

In the exam: Expect 'name this note' or 'rewrite in another clef' questions.

Show him these cards

Alto clef: middle C on the middle line (viola).

Four questions to work through together

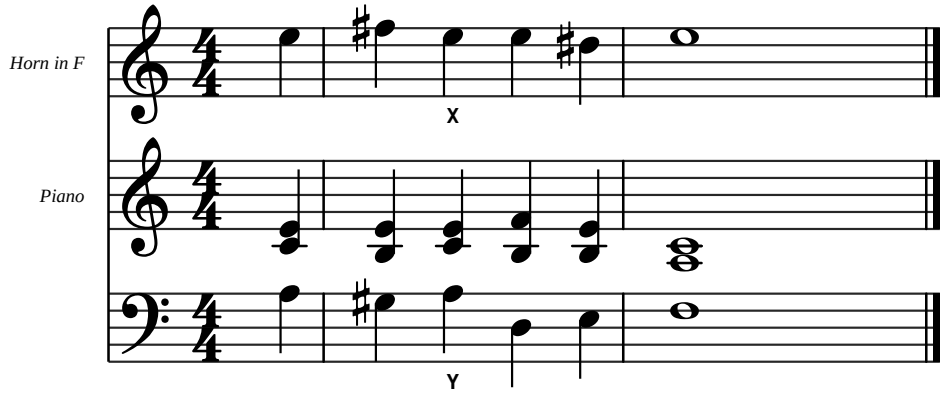

1. The clarinet in B♭ plays the note marked X. Which note actually sounds? (The music sounds in C minor.)

A. G B. C C. F D. A♭

Answer: A♭. The clarinet in B♭ sounds a major 2nd lower than written: written B♭ sounds as A♭. You can check it against the piano, which has the same harmony.

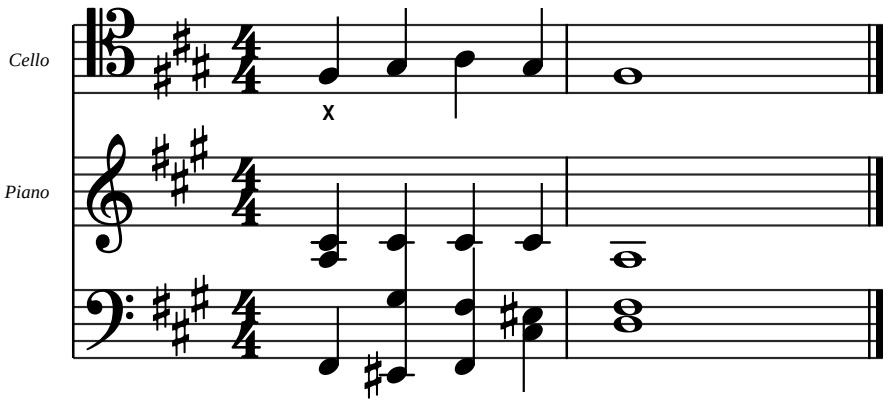

2. Name the interval between the SOUNDING note of the horn in F at X and the lowest piano note at Y.

A. perfect 15th B. perfect octave C. major octave D. minor octave

Answer: perfect octave. The solo sounds A (written E); the piano bass is A. That's a perfect octave.

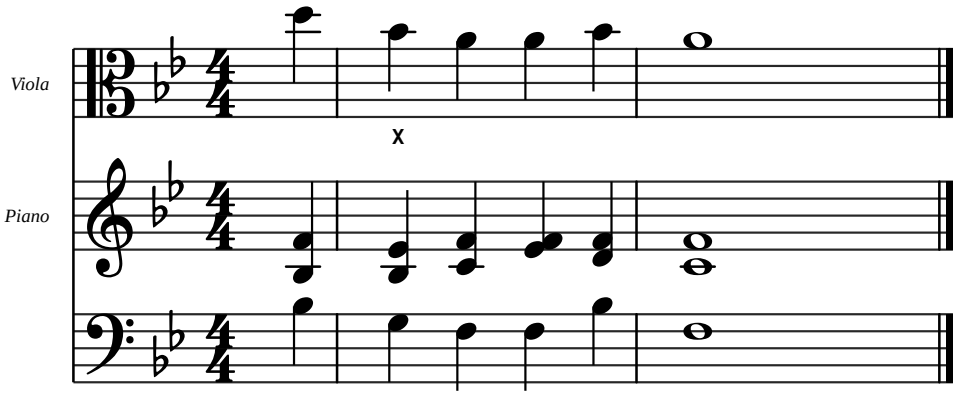

3. Name the cello's note marked X (tenor clef). Give the octave too: middle C is C4.

A. F♯2 B. E3 C. G♯3 D. F♯3

Answer: F♯3. In the tenor clef, middle C is on the 4th line up. The note at X is F♯3.

4. Name the viola's note marked X (alto clef). Give the octave too: middle C is C4.

A. B♭4 B. B♭3 C. D5 D. A4

Answer: B♭4. In the alto clef, middle C is on the middle line. The note at X is B♭4.

8. Name the interval between the SOUNDING note of the horn in F at X and the lowest piano note at Y.

A. perfect 10th B. major 10th C. major 3rd D. minor 10th

ANSWERS (FOR MUM)

1. B: interrupted. The last two chords are V–VI: an interrupted cadence.
2. A: C5. In the alto clef, middle C is on the middle line. The note at X is C5.
3. C: perfect 5th. The solo sounds F (written G); the piano bass is B♭. That's a perfect 5th.
4. D: I. Sounding notes: E♭, B♭, E♭, G: E♭–G–B♭ with E♭ in the bass, so I.
5. A: it sounds a perfect 5th lower than written, so it is written a perfect 5th higher. Horn in F sounds a perfect 5th lower than written, so its part is written higher by the same interval, and horn parts are often written with no key signature at all.
6. D: E♯. The horn in F sounds a perfect 5th lower than written: written B♯ sounds as E♯. You can check it against the piano, which has the same harmony.
7. C: I. Sounding notes: A, E, A, C: A–C–E with A in the bass, so I.
8. B: major 10th. The solo sounds D♯ (written A♯); the piano bass is B. That's a major 10th, a compound interval.

Day 79: Question 5: the full orchestra

G7 Scores · about 40 minutes: warm-up 5 · teach 10 · together 10 · on his own 12 · game 3

1 · WARM-UP (5 MIN)

Today's practice in Philip's corner, or the first two 'together' questions below.

2 · TEACH (10 MIN)

Say: "A full score looks scary, but you only need to read a few lines at a time."

- Question 5 is a full score of up to 14 staves. Score order: woodwind (flute, oboe, clarinet, bassoon), brass (horn, trumpet, trombone, tuba), percussion (timpani), strings (violins I and II, viola, cello, double bass).
- Read the harmony from the strings (they don't transpose, except the double bass an octave lower).

Worked example

How do you find the chord at a marked beat in a full score?

1. Look down the strings at that beat.
2. Collect the notes (double bass sounds an octave lower).
3. Stack them in 3rds and check the bass.

Watch out for

- Reading a transposing instrument's written note as if it sounded.

In the exam: Question 5: up to 14 staves, about 8 questions.

Show him these cards

Score order: woodwind, brass, percussion, strings.

Read the harmony from the strings (they don't transpose).

3 · DO TOGETHER (10 MIN)

- Name every stave in a full score and say which ones transpose.

Four questions to work through together

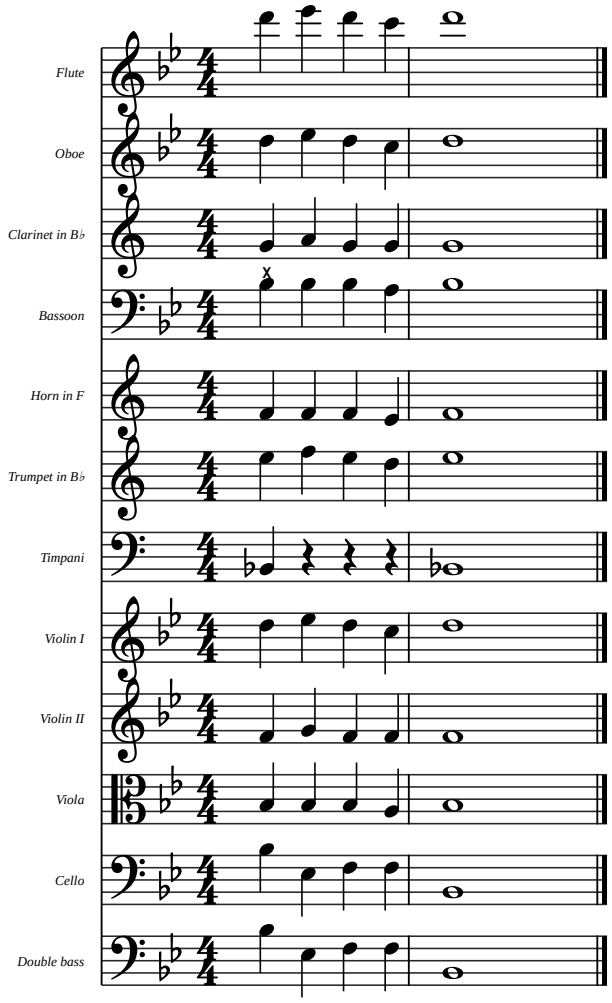

1. This extract sounds in G major. Name the chord at X.

A. IV7b B. VII7b C. IV7c D. IV

Answer: IV. Read the strings (they don't transpose): C, E, G, C: C–E–G, so IV.

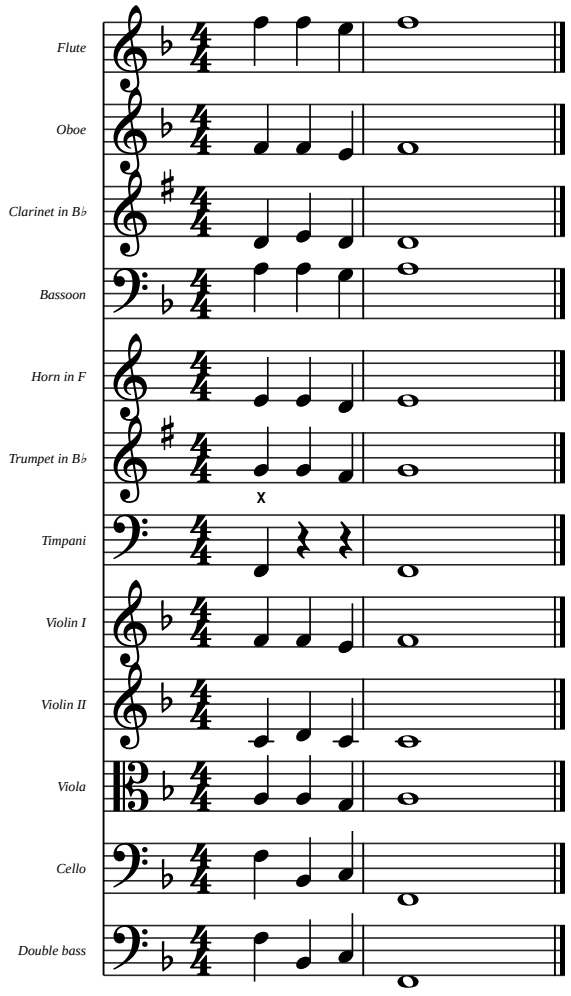

2. The clarinet in B♭ plays the note marked X. Which note actually sounds?

A. E♭ B. A C. G D. F

Answer: F. The B♭ clarinet sounds a major 2nd lower than written: written G sounds as F (the same as violin II).

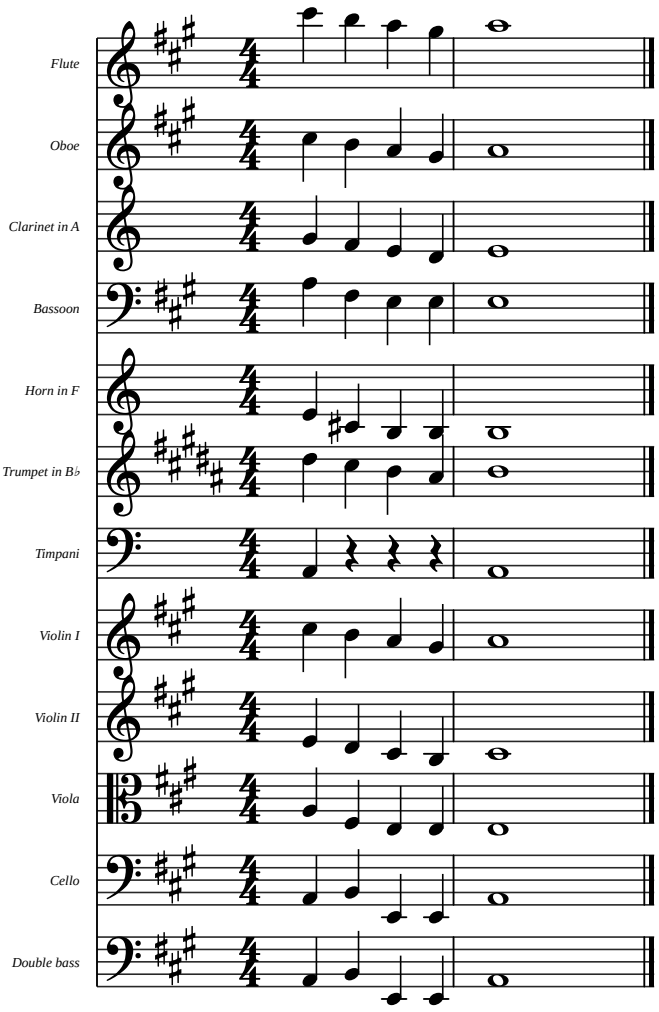

3. Which note actually sounds for the trumpet in B♭ at X?

A. E B. D C. F D. G

Answer: F. A B♭ trumpet sounds a major 2nd lower than written, so it doubles the violin I tune: F.

4. Which instrument plays the same sounding notes as violin I, an octave lower than the flute?

A. horn B. viola C. oboe (and the trumpet in B♭, which sounds a tone below its written notes) D. clarinet

Answer: oboe (and the trumpet in B♭, which sounds a tone below its written notes). The oboe has violin I's notes; the trumpet's written notes sound a tone lower, which is violin I's tune too. The flute plays it an octave higher.

8. The double bass and cello are written on the same notes here. How do they sound?

A. the cello sounds an octave lower

B. the double bass sounds an octave higher

C. the double bass sounds an octave lower

D. they sound in unison

ANSWERS (FOR MUM)

1. A: Ic. Read the strings (they don't transpose): B♭, B♭, E♭, G: E♭–G–B♭, so Ic.
2. A: 4. Flute, oboe, clarinet and bassoon: four woodwind staves, at the top of the score.
3. C: Vb. Read the strings (they don't transpose): G, B♭, E♭, E♭: E♭–G–B♭, so Vb.
4. D: D. The B♭ clarinet sounds a major 2nd lower than written: written E sounds as D (the same as violin II).
5. B: B. A B♭ trumpet sounds a major 2nd lower than written, so it doubles the violin I tune: B.
6. A: IV. Read the strings (they don't transpose): B♭, B♭, F, D: B♭–D–F, so IV.
7. B: C. The B♭ clarinet sounds a major 2nd lower than written: written D sounds as C (the same as violin II).
8. C: the double bass sounds an octave lower. The double bass always sounds an octave lower than written, so it doubles the cello an octave below.

Today's practice in Philip's corner, or the first two 'together' questions below.

2 · TEACH (10 MIN)

Say: “Spotting doublings helps you check your transposing: the sounding notes should match another part.”

- Trumpets in B♭ sound a tone lower; horns in F a 5th lower. Timpani usually play the tonic and dominant. The double bass sounds an octave lower than written.
- Common orchestral terms: a 2 (both players), 1. (first player only), divisi, unisoni, con sordino, pizzicato, arco.

Worked example

Violin I and the B♭ trumpet show different notes. Could they be doubling?

1. Lower the trumpet's written note by a tone.
2. If it matches violin I, they double.

Watch out for

- Forgetting the double bass sounds an octave lower.

- Ornaments to realise: trill, mordent, turn, acciaccatura, appoggiatura. Write out how they are played.
- Performance directions from the Grade 7 terms list often appear in questions 4 and 5.

Worked example

Write out an upper mordent on C5 (crotchet).

1. C5–D5–C5: the first two very quick, the last taking the rest of the beat.
2. In a key with D♭, the upper note is D♭.

Watch out for

- Using the wrong upper note (it follows the key signature unless marked).

In the exam: Ornament realisation is a common 2–3 mark question.

Show him these cards

Trill, upper and lower mordent, turn, acciaccatura, appoggiatura: write out how each is played.

Performance directions from the Grade 7 list often appear in questions 4 and 5.

3 · DO TOGETHER (10 MIN)

- Write out three ornaments from a score in the lesson pack.

Four questions to work through together

1. What does this mean?

au mouvement

A. bow over the fingerboard B. mysteriously C. go straight on to the next movement D. back to the original speed (French)

Answer: back to the original speed (French). au mouvement means "back to the original speed (French)".

2. What does this mean?

quasi

A. broadly (German) B. divided: players share the notes C. with movement (German) D. as if, almost Answer: as if, almost. quasi means "as if, almost".

3. Which term means "mute (French)"?

A. zart B. sourdine C. calando D. tranquillo

Answer: sourdine. sourdine means "mute (French)".

4. What does this mean?

zart

A. back to the first speed B. broadly (German) C. tenderly, delicately (German) D. brought out, prominent (French)

Answer: tenderly, delicately (German). zart means "tenderly, delicately (German)".

8. What does this mean?

sourdine

A. mute (French) B. dying away C. at the performer's choice (tempo or whether to play) D. mysteriously

ANSWERS (FOR MUM)

1. B: ad libitum (ad lib.). ad libitum (ad lib.) means "at the performer's choice (tempo or whether to play)".
2. C: perdendosi. perdendosi means "dying away".
3. C: lusingando. lusingando means "coaxing, caressing".
4. D: getting softer and slower. calando means "getting softer and slower".
5. B: bow lightly to give a flute-like sound. flautando means "bow lightly to give a flute-like sound".
6. A: mournful. lugubre means "mournful".
7. A: with movement (German). bewegt means "with movement (German)".
8. A: mute (French). sourdine means "mute (French)".

Day 82: Review: score questions (Days 76–81)

G7 Scores · about 40 minutes: warm-up 5 · teach 10 · together 10 · on his own 12 · game 3

1 · WARM-UP (5 MIN)

Today's practice in Philip's corner, or the first two 'together' questions below.

2 · TEACH (10 MIN)

- Go back over Days 76–81: solo-and-piano scores, transposition, C clefs, full scores and terms.

Show him these cards

Question 4: a solo instrument with piano.

Clarinet and trumpet in B♭: sound a major 2nd lower. Clarinet in A: a minor 3rd lower. Horn in F: a perfect 5th lower.

Alto clef: middle C on the middle line (viola).

Score order: woodwind, brass, percussion, strings.

Trumpet in B♭: a tone lower. Horn in F: a 5th lower. Double bass: an octave lower than written.

Trill, upper and lower mordent, turn, acciaccatura, appoggiatura: write out how each is played.

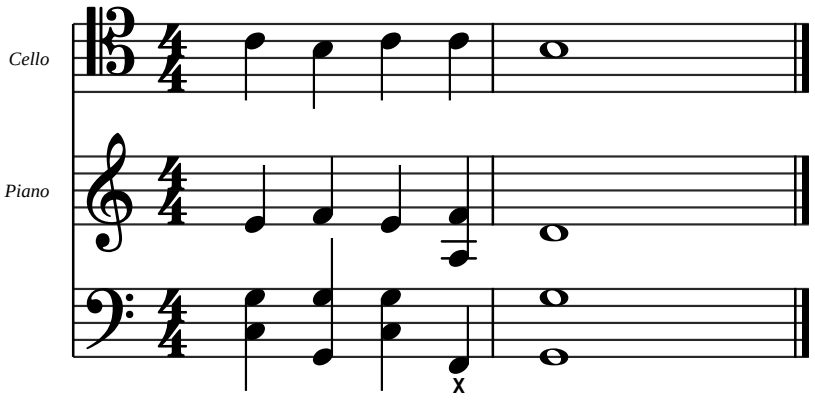

3 · DO TOGETHER (10 MIN)

- Questions 4 and 5 from the lesson pack, timed at 35 minutes each.

Four questions to work through together

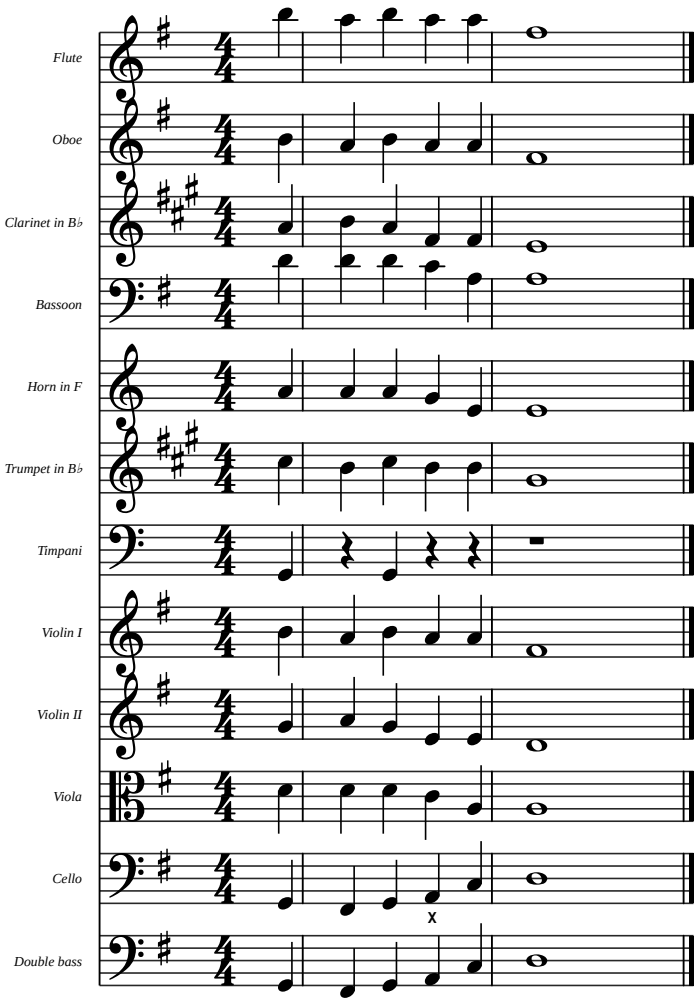

1. The music sounds in C major. Name the chord at X (solo and piano together; remember the solo transposes).

A. IVb B. IV C. VII7b D. VII7d

Answer: IV. Sounding notes: F, A, F, C: F–A–C with F in the bass, so IV.

2. This extract sounds in G major. Name the chord at X.

A. II7b B. VI7 C. V D. II

Answer: II. Read the strings (they don't transpose): A, C, E, A: A–C–E, so II.

3. What does this mean?

a 2

A. both players play the same part
B. back to the original speed (French)
C. getting softer and slower
D. heavily

Answer: both players play the same part. a 2 means "both players play the same part".

4. Which cadence ends this extract? (D major)

A. interrupted
B. plagal
C. imperfect
D. perfect

Answer: perfect. The last two chords are V–I: a perfect cadence.

4 · ON HIS OWN (12 MIN)

- Grade 7 scores practice.

His worksheet is on the next page (answers at the end).

5 · GAME (3 MIN)

His choice.

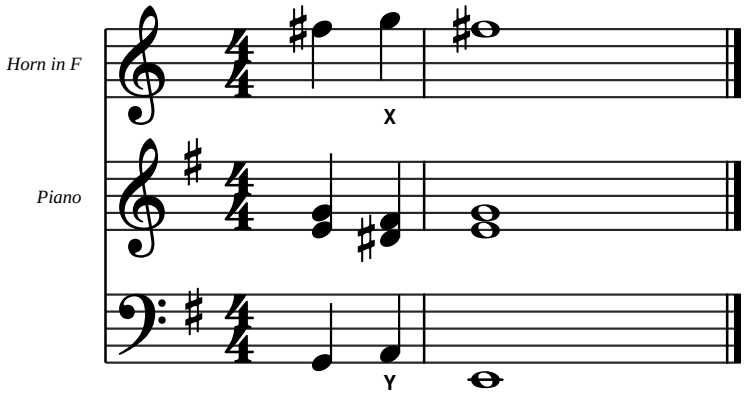

MOVE ON WHEN

He scores 8/10 or better on score questions.

Philip's worksheet · Day 82

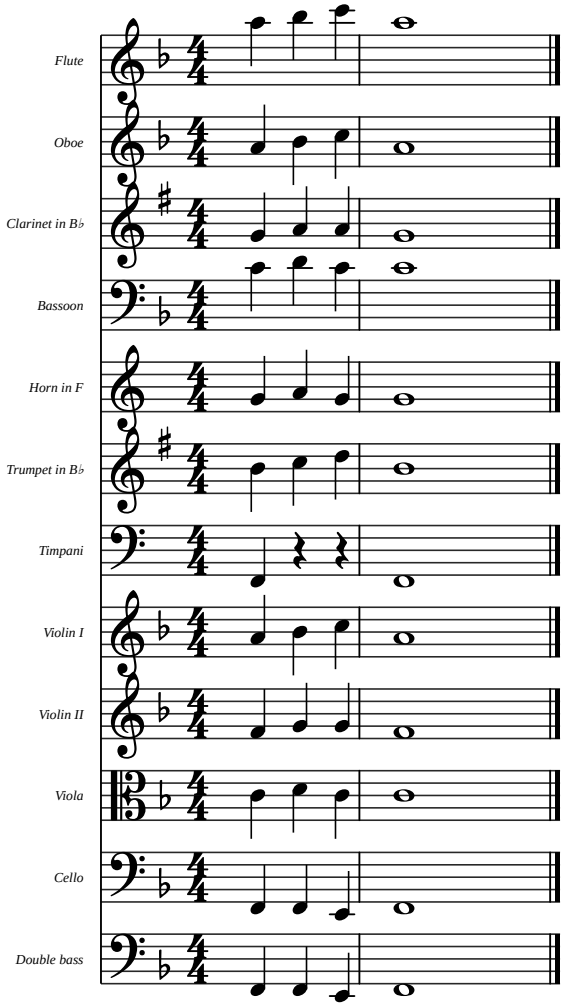

Name _____ Date _____ Score ____ / 8

1. Name the interval between the SOUNDING note of the horn in F at X and the lowest piano note at Y.

A. minor 10th B. minor 17th C. perfect 17th D. major 17th

2. Which instrument plays the same sounding notes as violin I, an octave lower than the flute?

A. clarinet B. viola C. oboe (and the trumpet in B♭, which sounds a tone below its written notes) D. horn

3. What does this mean?

flautando

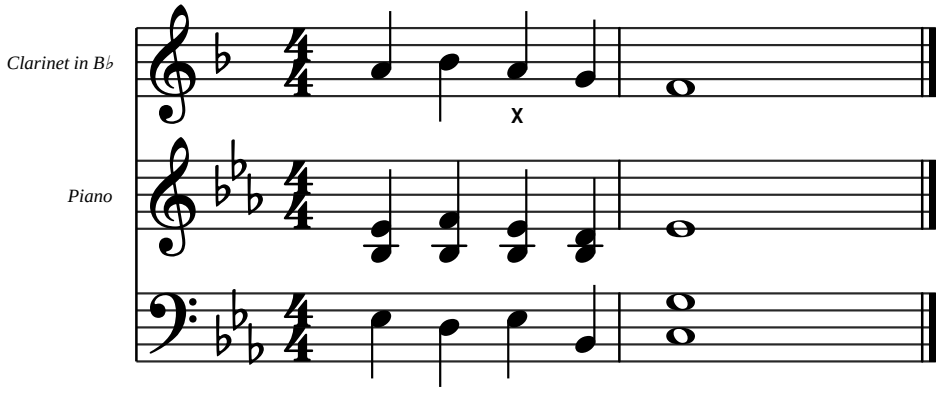

A. brought out, prominent (French)

B. stopped: hand in the bell of the horn (German)

C. tearful, sad

D. bow lightly to give a flute-like sound

4. The clarinet in B♭ plays the note marked X. Which note actually sounds? (The music sounds in E♭ major.)

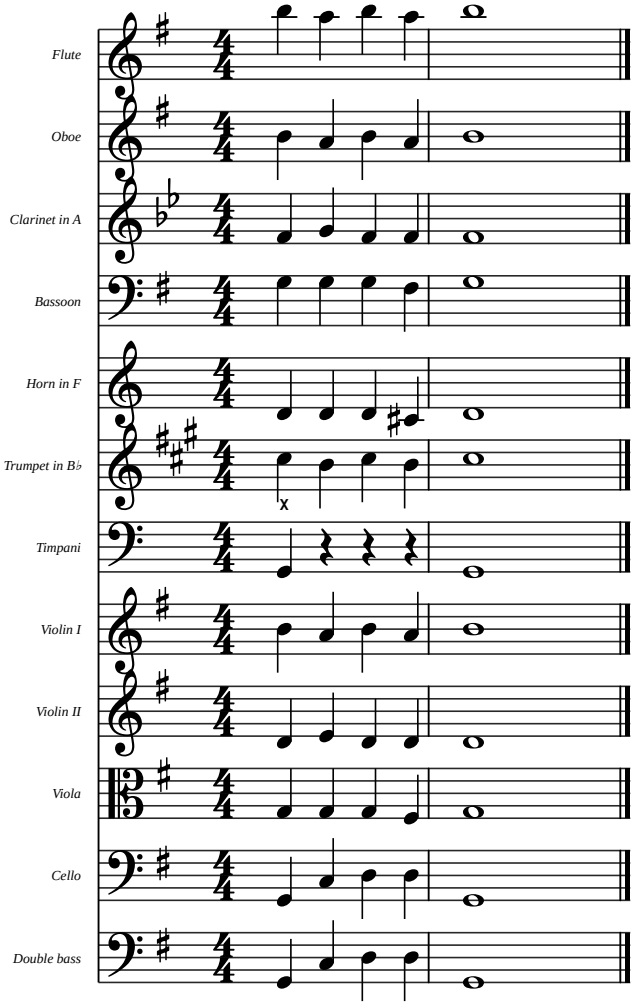

A. G

B. B♭

C. F

D. E♭

5. Which note actually sounds for the trumpet in B♭ at X?

A. D

B. B

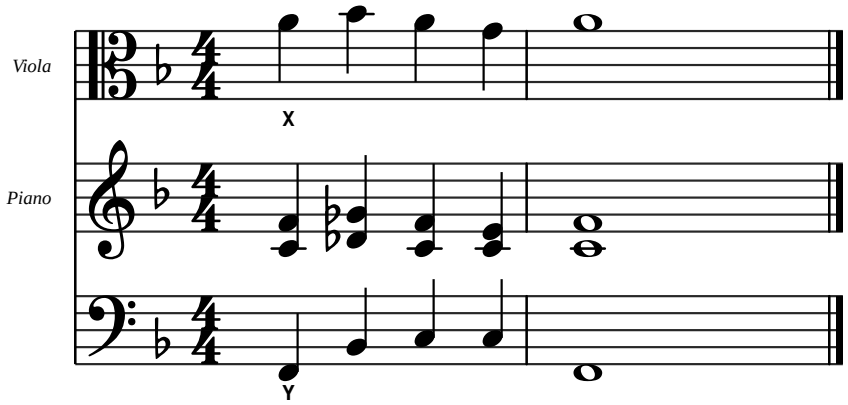

C. C

D. A

6. Which term means "tearful, sad"?

A. Flatterzunge B. sostenuto C. lacrimoso D. bewegt

7. Name the interval between the SOUNDING note of the viola at X and the lowest piano note at Y.

A. minor 17th B. major 17th C. major 10th D. perfect 17th

8. Which note actually sounds for the trumpet in B♭ at X?

A. F B. E C. B♭ D. G

ANSWERS (FOR MUM)

1. B: minor 17th. The solo sounds C (written G); the piano bass is A. That's a minor 17th, a compound interval.
2. C: oboe (and the trumpet in B♭, which sounds a tone below its written notes). The oboe has violin I's notes; the trumpet's written notes sound a tone lower, which is violin I's tune too. The flute plays it an octave higher.
3. D: bow lightly to give a flute-like sound. flautando means "bow lightly to give a flute-like sound".
4. A: G. The clarinet in B♭ sounds a major 2nd lower than written: written A sounds as G. You can check it against the piano, which has the same harmony.
5. B: B. A B♭ trumpet sounds a major 2nd lower than written, so it doubles the violin I tune: B.
6. C: lacrimoso. lacrimoso means "tearful, sad".
7. B: major 17th. The solo sounds A; the piano bass is F. That's a major 17th, a compound interval.
8. D: G. A B♭ trumpet sounds a major 2nd lower than written, so it doubles the violin I tune: G.
