Day 116: Question 4: chamber scores

G8 Scores · about 40 minutes: warm-up 5 · teach 10 · together 10 · on his own 12 · game 3

1 · WARM-UP (5 MIN)

Today's practice in Philip's corner, or the first two 'together' questions below.

2 · TEACH (10 MIN)

Say: "Read each instrument in its own clef and pitch, then put them together."

- Question 4 is a score of up to 5 staves: a string quartet, a wind quintet, a piano quintet, a voice with instruments.
- Questions ask about chords (now including chromatic chords), keys and modulations, intervals (often compound), cadences, ornaments, instruments, terms and features (sequence, imitation, pedal).
- Work out each instrument's sounding notes first.

Worked example

Which instruments are in a string quartet?

1. Violin I, violin II, viola and cello.
2. Clefs: treble, treble, alto, bass (tenor for high cello).

Watch out for

- Reading the viola as if it were treble clef.

In the exam: 25 marks; about 35 minutes.

Show him these cards

1

Question 4: a score of up to 5 staves, e.g. a string quartet.

2

Viola: alto clef, middle C on the middle line.

3

Work out sounding notes first for transposing instruments.

3 · DO TOGETHER (10 MIN)

- Look at a string quartet score together (Haydn or Mozart); name the instruments and clefs.

Four questions to work through together

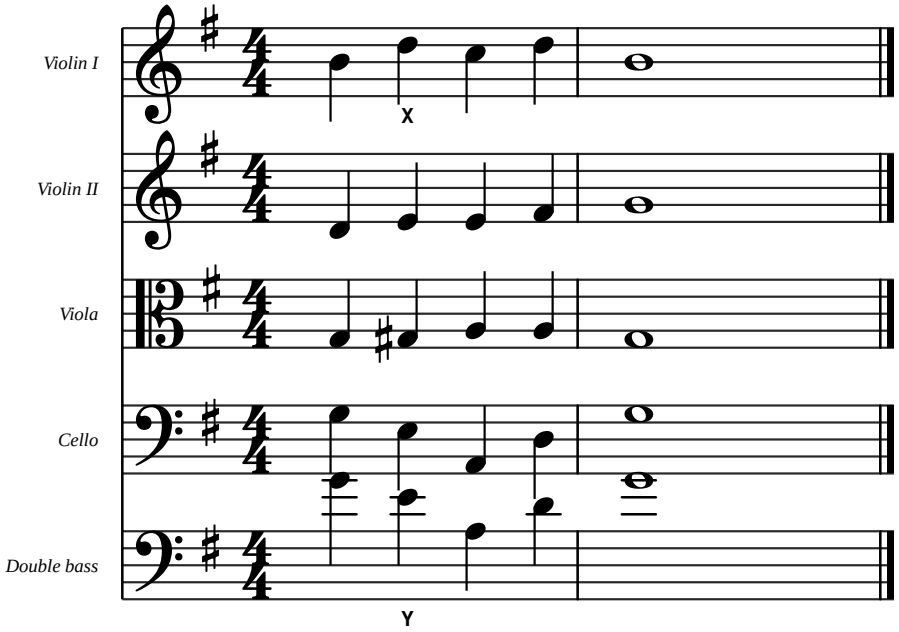

1. The horn in F plays the written note at X. Which note actually sounds?

A. C B. B♭ C. E♭ D. A♭

Answer: A♭. The horn in F sounds a perfect 5th lower than written: written E♭ sounds as A♭.

2. Name the interval between the SOUNDING notes at X (violin I) and Y (double bass).

A. compound perfect 7th B. minor 7th C. compound augmented 7th D. compound minor 7th

Answer: compound minor 7th. The violin I sounds D5; the double bass sounds E3 (the double bass sounds an octave below its written note). That's 14 letter names apart: a compound minor 7th.

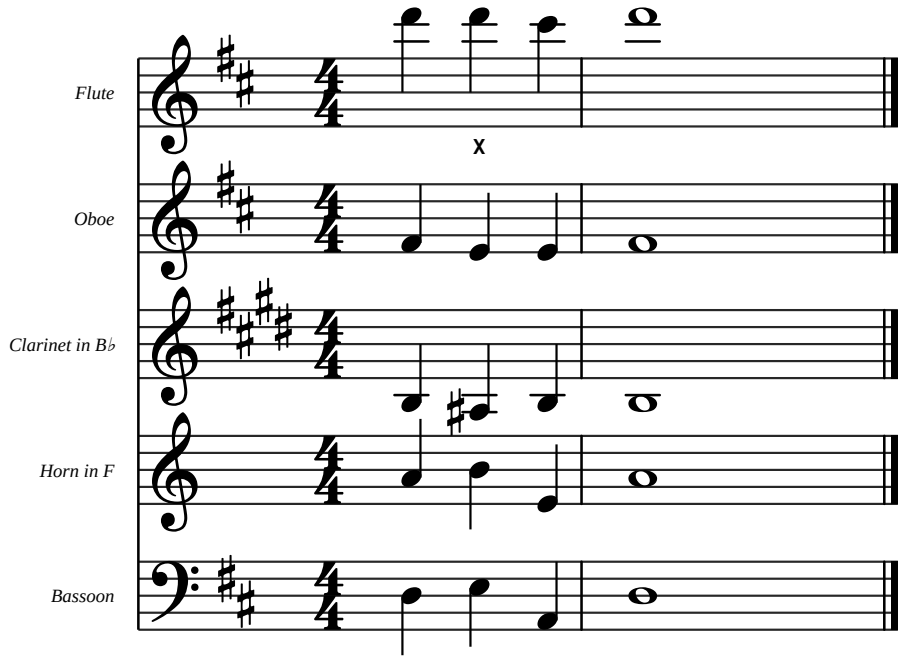

3. This string quartet sounds in D major. Name the chord at X.

A. V/V B. II7b C. VIIb D. II7c

Answer: II7c. Sounding notes at X: B, D, E, G: E–G–B–D, so II7c.

4. This wind quintet sounds in D major. Name the chord at X.

A. V7/V B. Vc C. Ic D. Vb

Answer: V7/V. Sounding notes at X: E, G♯, E, D: E–G♯–B–D, so V7/V, a secondary dominant (dominant 7th of V).

4 · ON HIS OWN (12 MIN)

- Chamber score practice.

His worksheet is on the next page (answers at the end).

8. Name the viola's note at X, with its octave (middle C is C4).

A. A3 B. C4 C. A2 D. G3

ANSWERS (FOR MUM)

1. D: F. The horn in F sounds a perfect 5th lower than written: written C sounds as F.
2. A: D♯4. In the alto clef middle C is on the middle line, so X is D♯4.
3. C: E♭. The clarinet in B♭ sounds a major 2nd lower than written: written F sounds as E♭.
4. D: perfect. The last two chords are V–I: a perfect cadence.
5. C: B♭3. In the alto clef middle C is on the middle line, so X is B♭3.
6. A: compound minor 7th. The flute sounds B5; the bassoon sounds C♯3. That's 21 letter names apart: a compound minor 7th.
7. C: a secondary dominant (dominant 7th of VI). At X the notes are E–G♯–B–D: a secondary dominant (dominant 7th of VI).
8. A: A3. In the alto clef middle C is on the middle line, so X is A3.

Day 117: Chromatic chords in a score

G8 Scores · about 40 minutes: warm-up 5 · teach 10 · together 10 · on his own 12 · game 3

1 · WARM-UP (5 MIN)

Today's practice in Philip's corner, or the first two 'together' questions below.

2 · TEACH (10 MIN)

Say: "Accidentals are clues; follow them to name the chord."

- To name a chord in a score, collect every sounding note at that point (all staves), then find the root.
- An accidental that isn't the leading note is a clue: a sharp that rises a semitone = a secondary dominant's leading note; ♭6 in the bass with ♯4 above = an augmented 6th.
- Questions may ask which instrument plays a particular note (the 7th, the ♯4).

Worked example

In A major, the notes are B–D♯–F♯–A. What's the chord?

1. D♯ is the leading note of E (V in A).
2. B–D♯–F♯–A is the dominant 7th of E.
3. So it's V7/V.

Watch out for

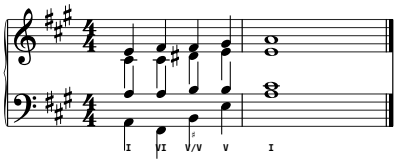

- Calling a secondary dominant 'II' because of its root.

In the exam: Name the chord with Roman numerals and the type.

Show him these cards

1

Collect every sounding note at the point, then find the root.

2

A sharp that rises a semitone: a secondary dominant's leading note.

3

♭6 in the bass with ♯4 above: an augmented 6th.

3 · DO TOGETHER (10 MIN)

- Name every chord in two bars of a quartet together.

Four questions to work through together

1. This string quartet is in D minor. What kind of chord is heard at X?

A. a French augmented 6th
B. a German augmented 6th
C. an Italian augmented 6th
D. a secondary dominant (dominant 7th of V)

Answer: a French augmented 6th. At X the notes are B♭–D–E–G♯: a French augmented 6th.

2. This wind quintet sounds in D major. Name the chord at X.

A. II7c
B. VII7b
C. V/V
D. VII7d

Answer: V/V. Sounding notes at X: E, E, G♯, B: E–G♯–B, so V/V, a secondary dominant (dominant of V).

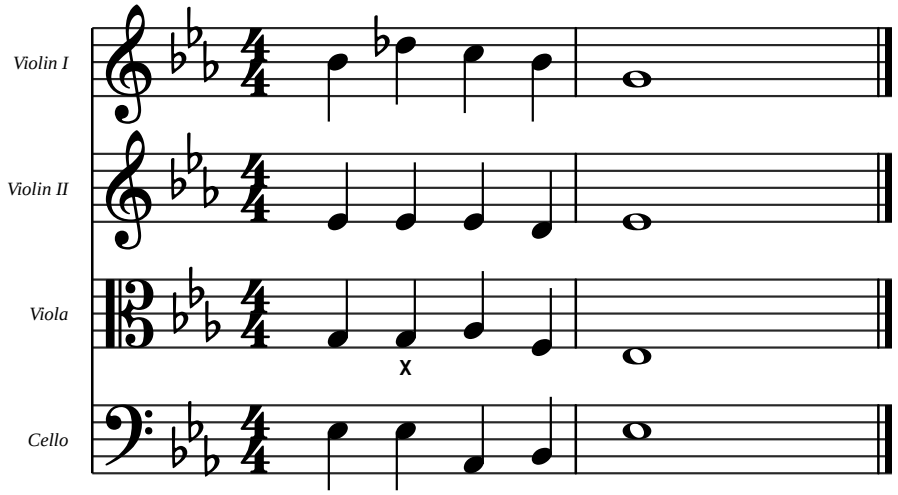

3. At X (V7/V in E minor), which instrument plays the leading note of the new key?

A. Violin I B. Violin II C. Viola D. Cello

Answer: Violin I. Violin I has A♯: the leading note of the new key (it rises a semitone).

4. Name the viola's note at X, with its octave (middle C is C4).

A. G3 B. A♭3 C. F3 D. B♭3

Answer: G3. In the alto clef middle C is on the middle line, so X is G3.

G8 Scores · about 40 minutes: warm-up 5 · teach 10 · together 10 · on his own 12 · game 3

1 · WARM-UP (5 MIN)

Today's practice in Philip's corner, or the first two 'together' questions below.

2 · TEACH (10 MIN)

Say: “Written isn't always sounding: check the instrument's name first.”

- Clarinet in B♭: sounds a major 2nd lower. Clarinet in A: a minor 3rd lower. Horn in F: a perfect 5th lower. Cor anglais: a perfect 5th lower.
- Alto clef (viola): middle C on the middle line. Tenor clef (cello, bassoon, trombone): middle C on the 4th line.
- Questions may ask you to write a few notes at concert pitch or for a different instrument.

Worked example

The horn in F plays written D5. What sounds?

1. Horn in F sounds a perfect 5th lower.
2. A 5th below D5 is G4.
3. So G4 sounds.

Watch out for

- Transposing in the wrong direction.

In the exam: Transposition questions are quick marks if you know the table.

Worked example

In what order do the woodwind appear?

1. Piccolo, flutes, oboes, cor anglais, clarinets, bass clarinet, bassoons, contrabassoon.

Watch out for

Day 120: Brass in old keys: horns in E♭, trumpets in D

G8 Scores · about 40 minutes: warm-up 5 · teach 10 · together 10 · on his own 12 · game 3

1 · WARM-UP (5 MIN)

Today's practice in Philip's corner, or the first two 'together' questions below.

2 · TEACH (10 MIN)

Say: "An instrument 'in X' plays a written C and you hear X."

- Before valves, brass players changed crooks for each key, so scores have horns and trumpets in many keys. The rule: a horn or trumpet 'in X' sounds the note X when it plays a written C.
- Horn in E♭: written C sounds the E♭ a major 6th below. Horn in D: a minor 7th below.
- Trumpet in D: written C sounds the D a major 2nd ABOVE. Trumpet in B♭: a major 2nd below. Trumpet in F: a perfect 4th above.
- Classical horns and trumpets usually have no key signature: accidentals are written in.

Worked example

Trumpet in D plays written E5. What sounds?

1. Trumpet in D sounds a major 2nd higher.
2. A major 2nd above E5 is F♯5.
3. So F♯5 sounds.

Watch out for

- Assuming all trumpets sound lower (B♭ trumpets do, D trumpets don't).

In the exam: Expect a question on at least one old-style brass part.

Show him these cards

1

Horn in E♭: written C sounds the E♭ below (a major 6th lower).

2

Trumpet in D: written C sounds the D above (a major 2nd higher).

3

Answer: G. The horn in E♭ sounds a major 6th lower than written: written E sounds as G.

2. How many of these staves are for transposing instruments that do NOT sound at the written pitch or an octave away?

A. 6 B. 4 C. 2 D. 3

Answer: 4. Cor anglais, clarinet in A, horn in E♭ and trumpet in D. (The piccolo and double bass only transpose by an octave.)

3. The horn in E♭ plays the written note at X. Which note actually sounds?

A. D B. C C. E♭ D. A

Answer: C. The horn in E♭ sounds a major 6th lower than written: written A sounds as C.

4. The trumpet in D plays the written note at X. Which note actually sounds?

3. C: in unison: the piccolo sounds an octave higher than written. The piccolo sounds an octave higher than written, so its part, written an octave below the flute's, sounds at the same pitch.
4. D: B. The horn in E♭ sounds a major 6th lower than written: written G♯ sounds as B.
